

A Tribute to Our Veterans

Veterans Day, it is the one day out of the year that Americans honor those who have fought for our country.

Veterans Day is much like Mother's Day or Father's Day. The people that are being honored have worked hard to deserve it.

I ask you, how many times have you stopped today to realize that our freedom and independence comes with a price? That price is very great. Those who chose to fight for our country risk their lives for their family and people that they do not even know. They are not able to be with their family very often. However, when they are back in America, they are considered heroes.

In the airport, I have seen people applaud those brave soldiers in uniform. Veterans Day is a day set aside each year to honor our country's soldiers, the sacrifices that they have made, and the freedom that we have because of them.
